How large can I grow in this market?
How many years can I be successful in this market?
Should I renew my lease?

LaborPlan™ is a RISK ANALYSIS that examines the PERIOD OF TIME (longevity) a labor market can support any particular or combination of skill sets, including SENSITIVITIES to market or operational changes and SCALABILITY by SKILL or JOB FAMILY.

←.....SCALABILITY.....→

0-10 Years	High Risk
11-14 Years	Moderate Risk
15-19 Years	Average Risk
20-24 Years	Low Risk
25+ Years	Preferred Market

Labor Analytics answers these questions with the use of their award-winning workforce longevity tool: LaborPlan. Plan for your labor needs to determine if there is enough supply to meet your demand on the workforce before signing a new lease or renewal, and guide how many years makes sense to commit to a market.
